

Sattelite radio is a viable commodity that should not be forced to change because of these dumb standards. Please set up and stop these people before you do more damage to America's airwaves.